SPECIAL CONDITIONS

- 1) Data Link - discontinue warrantless use of data link tracking software on Bartlett's body, living conditions, and family members and/or living conditions.
- 2) U.S. Mail - discontinue mail catching, and/or interception of incoming/outgoing mail. (mail codes)

The agency identified above has determined that you owe past-due child and/or spousal support. Our records show that you owe at least the amount shown above. If your case was submitted to the United States Department of the Treasury for collection in the past, this amount is subject to collection at any time by Administrative Offset and/or Federal Tax Refund Offset. If your case has not already been submitted to the United States Department of the Treasury and you do not pay in full within 30 days from the date of this notice, this amount will be referred for collection by Administrative Offset and/or Federal Tax Refund Offset. Under Administrative Offset (31 U.S.C.3716), certain Federal payments that might otherwise be paid to you will be intercepted, either in whole or in part, to pay past-due child and/or spousal support. Under Federal Tax Refund Offset (42 U.S.C.664;26 U.S.C.6402), any Federal Income Tax Refund to which you may be entitled will be intercepted to satisfy your debt. The amount of your past-due support will also be reported to consumer reporting agencies.

If you owe or owed arrearages of child support in an amount exceeding $2,500, the agency identified above will certify your debt to the State Department pursuant to 42 USC 654(31). Once you are certified, the Secretary of State will refuse to issue a passport to you, and may revoke, restrict or limit a passport that was previously issued.

Your debt will remain subject to Federal Tax Refund Offset, Administrative Offset, and/or passport certification until it is paid in full. Important: If you owe current support, any further arrears accruing due to payments missed may be added to your debt and will be subject to collection by Federal Tax Refund Offset and/or Administrative Offset now or in the future without further notice. To determine additional amounts owed or the total amount past-due which the agency has submitted for collection, you may contact us at the address or phone number listed above.

You have a right to contest our determination that this amount of past-due support is owed, and you may request an administrative review. To request an administrative review, you must contact us at the address or phone number listed above within 30 days of the date of this notice. If your support order was not issued in our state, we can conduct the review or, if you prefer, the review can be conducted in the state that issued the support order. If you request, we will contact that state within 10 days after we receive your request and you will be notified of the time and place of your administrative review by the state that issued the order. All requests for administrative review, or any questions regarding this notice or your debt, must be made by contacting the agency identified above.

If you are married, filing a joint income tax return, and you incurred this debt separately from your spouse, who has no legal responsibility for the debt and who has income and withholding and/or estimated tax payments, your spouse may be entitled to receive his or her portion of any joint Federal Tax Refund. If your spouse meets these criteria, he or she may receive his or her portion of the joint refund by filing a Form 8379 - Injured Spouse Claim and Allocation. Form 8379 should be attached to the top of the Form 1040 or 1040A when you file, or filed according to other instructions as indicated on the Form 8379.

STATE INCOME TAX REFUND PRE-OFFSET NOTICE

Our records show that you may owe overdue court-ordered support and or fees for at least the amount shown below. State law (A.R.S. §42-1122) provides that an individual's income tax refund may be applied against any overdue court-ordered support or fees. The arrears balance that you owe may fluctuate up or down and the debt will be offset at the amount certified as of the date of offset, not necessarily the amount shown in this notice. Consequently, any state income tax refund to which you are entitled could be retained either partially or in full to satisfy the outstanding obligation.

You have the right to contest our determination that this amount of overdue support is owed. You may contest this determination by requesting an administrative review in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of this notice. Within the administrative review request you must provide the Department with your current residential and/or mailing address, you or your attorney must sign the request and it must specifically state why you believe the claim does not exist or why the amount of the obligation is not correct. To support this claim you must also provide any and all relevant documentation pertaining to your claim (such as court orders, documentation of support payments made to the custodial parent and/or another state jurisdiction, etc.) along with a copy of this notice. If you should have questions regarding this action they should be directed to the Division of Child Support Services at the number listed below, please do not contact the Department of Revenue about this action.
